Why QAT?

W My name is Miji Kim, I am studying a Diploma of Early Childhood Education & Care at QAT. I am happy and enjoy studying at QAT. My trainer is very nice and teaches us what we need to know to be successful in childcare. The support from QAT gives me confidence and helps me to overcome challenges, even if my English is not great at times. After studying at QAT, I will get a job in a childcare centre and apply all the skills I have learned at QAT. I look forward to my future in Australia.

W My name is Fung Kwun, Yu from China. My trainer is a very experienced head chef. He always tries his best to share all of his knowledge with us. He pushed us hard and wishes us to do our best. Proper training with real-life and experienced chefs make it easier to achieve your career goals. You will never waste your time at QAT.

W My name is Yesica Ramirez, I am from Colombia, but I have been living in Brisbane for 2 months, I decided to learn English and chose the best school. If you really want to have an amazing experience you must study at QAT. My class is my family, I enjoy different cultures, meeting interesting people, visiting amazing places and best of all, learning English in a fun way. Study at QAT!

- ♥ A range of specialised English language and vocational training programmes.
- ♥ QAT has study pathways to many quality universities and TAFEs
- ♥ Professional, supportive and experienced teachers.

Hi, my name is Yeap Lai Mooi.

During the past three years studying with QAT, I have not only improved my management & leadership skills, I have also improved my computer skills, English skills and verbal communication skills, as well as gained the knowledge to develop my career in Australia.

Yeap Lai Mooi, Malaysia
Graduate Diploma of Leadership and Management

I've been studying IELTS

Preparation at QAT for 3 months and it is fantastic! Since I started, I've noticeably improved with all of my English skills increasing dramatically. Therefore, I strongly recommend you to study here, if you want to learn the strategies to success.

Hi, my name is Shuhei Hasegawa, I come from Japan. I have been studying General English for 2 months. At QAT, I can meet people from different countries, so I can practice my English everyday. I like to speak with different nationalities and learn about different cultures. The General English BBQ is very fun and very delicious. I enjoy cooking and having fun with my classmates.

Shuhei Hasegawa, Japan
General English (Foundation IELTS)

I would like to thank every single member of staff at QAT for their great support, whether in teaching me how to prepare for my IELTS or for their great and warm welcoming to the college. It really is an amazing experience to deal with such cooperative and professional staff, and that's why I will definitely recommend your esteemed institute to all of my friends. Thank you again for your help and I feel sad that I am leaving so soon.
