

THE QUT EXPERIENCE

MASAKO MIZUSAWA

BACHELOR OF CREATIVE INDUSTRIES STUDENT

My internship with Brisbane Festival 2016's performance, Hanako, gave me experience as both a Cultural Consultant and as a performer during a week of shows at Brisbane Powerhouse. It wasn't just about learning practical skills and applying what I learnt from QUT, but also more than that. It was an opportunity for personal development as well.

I really appreciate all that QUT has offered me, I wouldn't be who I am right now if I didn't come here!

AURORA RIVERA

MASTER OF BUSINESS STUDENT

Moving to another country can be exciting sometimes and terrifying sometimes, there are always ups and downs. At first I had a hard time with the English language and my first assignments, but QUT supports international students from each faculty and they also provide free sessions to improve your pronunciation, professional writing or public speaking skills.

During my time at QUT, the friends I have met, became my family. Whether they be international or domestic students, in my faculty or at a different campus, they have all enriched my journey.

STUDY GUIDE

FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS 2018

OUTSTANDING ALUMNI

Developing life-changing nutrition screening

QUT Outstanding alumni award recipient and dietitian, Singaporean Dr Lim Su Lin is an innovator in the field of nutrition and dietetics.

Dr Lim has designed a 3-Minute Nutrition Screening tool to help identify those at risk of malnutrition – a tool that is now being used by every patient admitted to the National University Hospital in Singapore.

The tool ensures that those at risk of malnutrition are correctly identified to receive the appropriate referral and treatment.

Dr Lim has also developed the first post-discharge ambulatory nutrition support service in Singapore, resulting in improved patient outcomes and low re-admission rates.

Applying innovative solutions to real-world problems.

That's the QUT difference.

From QUT to Google

QUT alumna, Carolyn Dawkins, is at the forefront of global digital strategies. The Bachelor of Business (major in Marketing & Communications, minor in Media Analysis and IT) graduate is now head of Google's BrandLab in New York City.

Ms Dawkin's branch supports Google's Top 100 worldwide clients to grow their brand-building capabilities.

Ms Dawkins believes in bringing a brand's story to life online through the right digital platform. Real QUT experience creating real brand outcomes.

An IT guru from the start, Richard Eastes, was able to grow his skills through QUT's Bachelor of Information Technology.

After graduating, Richard was integral in growing car rental comparison site VroomVroomVroom taking it from a small start up to a multi-national company with an annual turnover of $60 million.

Richard was also named QUT Science and Engineering Faculty's Outstanding Alumni Award recipient for 2016.
